

Writing Homework #25

Thomas Edison invented over 1000 devices. His inventions changed the world. If you could invent something, what would you invent? Is this something that other people would use? Describe what your invention would do and what your invention would look like. Write 7 to 15 sentences about your invention. Be sure to check your spelling and punctuation. Write on notebook paper; do not type your paragraph.

