

Pronoun Review

1. Know the difference between subject and object pronouns.

2. Pay attention to sentence structure. Predicate nominatives and direct objects look alike.

 The winner was she. Subject – Linking verb – Pred Nom. Predicate nominatives are subject pronouns.	The winner thanked us. Subject – Verb – Direct Object Direct objects are object pronouns.
--	--

3. When the subject or object is compound, omit the other person and listen to the pronoun alone.

Richard and (I, me) drove to San Antonio.
Marco took a picture of Richard and (I, me) at the Alamo.

4. If the pronoun is followed by an appositive, omit the appositive.

(We, Us) girls were visiting colleges.
They gave (us, we) girls a tour of the campus.

5. Use he/him instead of who/whom to determine which word is correct.

_____ is there?
You left your dog with ____?

6. Use him + he instead of whoever and use him + he instead of whomever to determine which word is correct.

We will hire whoever/whomever is most qualified.
We will hire him. He is most qualified.

We will hire whoever/whomever you recommend.
We will hire him. You recommend him.

7. When making a comparison using as or than, complete the sentence.

Claire is as tall as (she, her).	Claire is as tall as ____ is .
David is taller than (he, him).	David is taller than ____ is .

8. Possessive pronouns do not have apostrophes. (yours, hers, its, ours, theirs)

9. Pronouns have to agree with the antecedents they refer to.

Pronoun Practice:

1. (She, Her) went to the store.
2. It was (she, her).
3. We talked to (he, him).
4. It is (I, me).
5. Sarah and (she, her) have quit the team.
6. They asked (he, him) and (I, me) to join the club.
7. That call was for (I, me), not (he, him).
8. Tell Jacob and (she, her) that (I, me) called.
9. I am as willing as (he, him) to work hard.
10. Erik called David and (I, me) as soon as he could.
11. It is (they, them).
12. Beverly is more nervous than (she, her).
13. Kathleen invited Larry and (I, me) to the movies.
14. This is (he, him) speaking.
15. I weigh more than (him, he).
16. The horse kicked (it's, its) rider off in the arena
17. My shirt is darker than (your's, yours).
18. (Who, Whom) do you bank with?
19. (Who, Whom) do you think will win the award?
20. Matthew will talk about cars with (whoever, whomever) will listen.
21. Cheryl donates her time to (whoever, whomever) needs it most.
22. Karl was not sure (who, whom) he was voting for.
23. She is the woman (who, whom) was employed here.
24. The usher led (we, us) visitors to our seats.
25. (We, Us) volunteers will gladly work on Saturday.
26. Nobody turned in (his, their) time card on Friday.
27. Each student should bring (his, their) calculator to class.
28. Neither Marcus nor Austin brought (his, their) backpacks home from school.