

Chapter 2, Homework 4

Spanish

¿Saber o Conocer?

Translate each sentence to Spanish. Determine whether you should use saber or conocer.

1. She knows where you live.
2. They know Jorge y Anita.
3. We don't know why he is thirsty.
4. I know that you are here.
5. We know San Antonio well.
6. Do you know that there are cookies in your backpack?
7. He knows how to drive a car.

Present Progressive

Write each sentence using the correct form of estar + the present progressive verb.

8. I am closing the door.
9. They are thinking about lunch.
10. The team is losing the game.
11. You are following the blue car.
12. We are reading a new book.
13. He is falling over the table.

Direct Object Pronouns

Change the direct object into a pronoun. Then translate the sentence to English.

14. Mi madre hace tamales.
15. Roberta busca a su hermana.
16. Espero a mis amigos en el cine.
17. Preferimos comer el pastel.
18. Vas a comprar un teléfono nuevo.
19. No quiero cerrar la ventana.