

Por and Para and Conditional Verbs

Chapter 9, Homework 3

Spanish 2

Translate the sentences to Spanish. Every sentence should have the word “por” in it. The verbs are all future tense and conditional tense.

1. I would like to sell my phone for $400.
2. We will travel to Canada by train.
3. You will be playing for 2 hours.
4. He will speak for her.
5. The bus will pass by my house at 2.
6. The speed limit should be 50 miles per hour here.

Give a function of the following items. Every sentence should have the word “para” in it.

Example: Tenedor: El tenedor sirve para comer papas.

7. La cuchara
8. Los vasos
9. Los libros
10. El lápiz
11. Los oídos
12. Los pies

Write a polite request or suggestion for each situation. Every sentence must contain a conditional verb.

13. Invite a friend to eat lunch with you tomorrow.
14. Tell someone they ought to clean the floor.
15. Ask someone to play volleyball.
16. Tell your little brother he ought to take out the trash in the kitchen.
17. Tell someone they should read this interesting book.
18. Ask someone if they could write a letter for you.

