

Some Texas History Field Trips

The Alamo in San Antonio

There is a book in the FAITH library that is a walking tour of the Alamo. It takes you around downtown and tells you all the important things that lead up to the battle of the Alamo. Very easy to use.

The Spanish Missions in San Antonio

Buckhorn Museum in San Antonio

Gonzales

Goliad

Saur-Beckman Farm in Johnson City

The Capitol in Austin

We have a class field trip to the capitol scheduled for Friday, March 4.

Bob Bullock Museum in Austin

Some people will go to the Bullock Museum after visiting the capitol on March 4.

San Jacinto Monument near Houston

If you can go to the re-enactment of the Battle of San Jacinto around April 21, it's a lot of fun. They do a great job re-creating the battle.

Washington on the Brazos

Palo Duro canyon

The coast

Big Bend

There are ancient Indian cave paintings at Seminole Canyon Park. Stop by Langtry, Texas to visit Judge Roy Bean's courthouse.

Moody Mansion in Galveston

Pacific War Museum in Fredericksburg

Texas Historical Commission

<https://www.thc.texas.gov/preserve/projects-and-programs/state-historical-markers/thematic-marker-maps>

The website above has maps that show where historical places in Texas are. You can even select a theme (like Women in Texas or African-American History in Texas) and it will show you sites to visit.