

TEXAS HISTORY TIMELINE

1680 Spain uses _____ to settle Texas. They taught the Indians about the Catholic faith and farming.

To keep the missionaries safe, the Spanish built _____ near groups of missions.

1682 The mission at El Paso was founded.

1685 French colonists arrived near Matagorda Bay. Captain _____'s boat was stranded so they built a fort.

1690 The Spanish felt threatened by the French colonists, so they built several missions in East Texas near the Louisiana border. Unfortunately, the Indians thought they Spanish brought _____ and they had to leave the area.

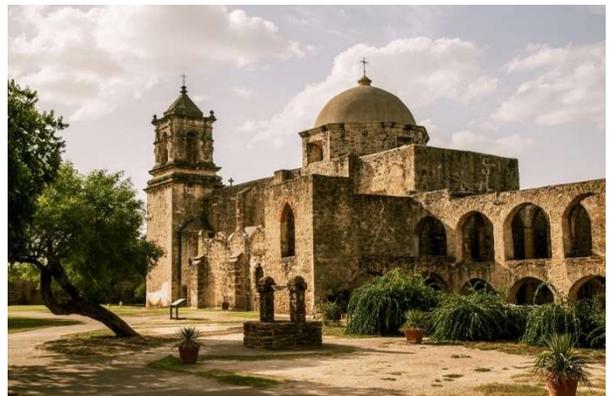

1710 The French wanted a trading post in East Texas to sell things to the Indians and Spanish.

1716 The Spanish built new missions in East Texas and things went well.

1718 The _____ was the Royal Highway from Mexico to Louisiana. The trip was very long and someone suggested building a mission halfway, so they built the missions in _____.

1719 In Europe, Spain and France declared war on each other. Spain sent troops to East Texas to protect its border.

1726 The Spanish built a mission and presidio at _____ on the Guadalupe River.

The more missions the Spanish built, the more _____ they built.

The El Camion Real made San Antonio a very _____ area.

When Indians fought against the missions, they failed.

The only successful missions were at:

Life in a Mission:

Each morning the people would _____ before they went to work.

Adults and children worked on nearby _____.

Women made pottery, wove cloth, cared for _____, and cooked the meals.

The missionaries taught religious classes for _____ and _____.

Early San Antonio:

The local people participated in the _____.

There were all kinds of _____ who lived there.

They had a very rich social life, with _____, _____, _____ and _____.

Small herds of cattle brought over from Spain grew into huge herds of wild cattle.

The people who worked with the cattle were called _____.