Homework 3:

Read “World War”.

FYI – Billy Mitchell was Colonel Bill Mitchell of the US Army. In the 1930s, he told the Army and Congress that the US needed to build up its air force and make aircraft carriers for our Navy. It was an emergency! We needed them now! People didn’t listen to him and he was thrown out of the Army.

1. How did airplanes change how wars were fought?
2. Besides planes, what other new equipment was used during WW II?
3. How did the Allies crack the German code?

WRITING

Admiral Chester Nimitz was an important leader during World War 2 and he was a Texan! Research information about Admiral Nimitz and write a report about him. Include information about his life in Texas and his contributions to World War 2. Write TWO compound-complex sentences like we practiced in class. Underline the compound-complex sentences in your report.

Are you a good code breaker? Each number in the code stands for one letter. See if you can decode this message from President John Adams.
