

Lesson 26 Homework

---

Write the answers to the questions on notebook paper.

Answer with complete sentences.

Homework 1:

Read “The Marshal Plan”.

1. What does, “The Buck Stops Here” mean?
2. What did President Truman do for our former WW 2 enemies?
3. Did Truman’s plan work?
4. What was changed in Japan after the war?
5. How did America treat Japan after the war?
6. What is a “Third World” country?
7. What did Truman do to improve civil rights?

Homework 2:

Read “Liking Ike”.

1. How did television change the way people lived?
2. How did Eisenhower serve our country before he became president?
3. Why did Eisenhower want to stop the Korean War?
4. What race started as soon as Eisenhower was out of office?
5. Google this: In what year were Alaska and Hawaii admitted as states?
6. Jitterbugs and sock hops were popular in the ‘50s. Here’s a link to show you how they danced: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Rf55gHK48VQ>
What do you think about they way they danced?
7. Elvis Presley was “king” of rock and roll. Here he is on the Milton Berle Show: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MMmljYkdr-w> What do you think of Elvis’ singing and dancing?

Homework 3:

Read “Rosa Parks Was Tired”.

1. Why did Rosa Parks stay in her seat on the bus in 1955?
2. What is a boycott?
3. What happened to the blacks because they boycotted the buses in Montgomery?
4. Who was leading the boycott?
5. The segregationists and the blacks both wanted their way. What was the difference between the way the segregationists protested and the way the blacks protested.
6. What was the “weapon” used by Dr. King?
7. How long did the boycott last?
8. How did this boycott change the world?